MANUAL TRAINING IN LOS ANGELES

New High School Is Being Built—Noted Educator Coming Here.

E. A. Ross, superintendent of manual training in the El Paso public schools, has returned from a visit of inspection to the manual training department of the Los Angeles public schools. He has made a report to the El Paso school board in which he says:

"Manual training classes are larger than during the first semester of the year, and it takes our entire teaching force. During the past month I spent three days visiting and studying the manual training department of the Los Angeles schools. Los Angeles has incorporated into its system of public education the best department of manual training to be found in any city in the United States. The buildings and equipments are intensely practical but not nearly so expensive as in some other cities, notably Kansas City, Chicago and St. Louis.

"The Polytechnic high school which has been opened but a few years has just received a 20 room addition. At the time this school was built it was stated by many that there could not be found students enough desirous of taking the practical courses offered. In less than two years many students stood in line all night long in an attempt to insure enrollment in the Polytechnic high school, and it was found necessary to build another school of the same character. This school is now in process of construction and is called the Manual Arts high school. Though not completed, classes are being held in certain departments and 1500 students are already enrolled. This school will cost when completed and equipped $750,000. Many Los Angeles students who cannot get the practical courses in the city schools become students at Throop Polytechnic Institute, a large technical school located at Pasadena.

"In the elementary schools our work compares favorably with that of Los Angeles. In many ways I believe any competent judge would consider ours superior.

"For more than a year I have been desirous of securing the services of one of the best authorities on manual training to visit El Paso and study our manual training work. Prof. Arthur H. Chamberlain states that he will be able to visit us on the 20th of the present month. Prof. Chamberlain was for many years president of Throop Polytechnic Institute and it is due to his efforts that the institution reached its present high state of development and educational usefulness. He is now treasurer of the National Educational Association. He has written a number of valuable books on subjects relating to industrial education, and is considered one of the leading manual training authorities of the world. I strongly urge that the board arrange for his visit here."

SCHOOL BOARD HAS NO QUORUM MONDAY NIGHT.

There was no meeting of the school board Monday night owing to the failure of a quorum. Dr. E. H. Irvin, J. H. Harper and W. L. Peabody were in attendance, but waited in vain for W. H. Winter to come and make a quorum. Dr. B. M. Worsham is confined to his home on account of illness, and president H. A. Carpenter is out of the city.

For several minutes the school board, or those who were in attendance, were in the dark, a fuse having blown out, but Dr. E. H. Irvin relieved the situation by installing a new fuse. It was not decided when the meeting will be held.

CARRIZO GETS FOUR INCH SNOW

Carrizozo, N. M., Feb. 14.—A steady rain here was followed yesterday by a fall of four inches of snow. A heavy snowfall is reported in the mountain sections of the county. This is the first moisture of any consequence that has fallen in this vicinity for many months. The railroad is again receiving a plentiful supply of water here from the Bonito creek.

A linen shower was given Miss Nettie Lee by the young women of Carrizozo. Miss Lee is to be married this week at White Oaks to R. E. Lemon, of White City, Kansas.

The two cases of smallpox in the Regalado family are convalescent and the quarantine has been lifted. There are now no cases of smallpox in or near Carrizozo.

W. C. McDonald has returned from Albuquerque, where he went to attend a meeting of the cattle sanitary board. Humphrey brothers have opened a grain and feed store in the building formerly occupied as a skating rink.

Will Wed George Gould's Son

New York, N. Y., Feb. 14.—Miss Anna Douglas Graham will be married to Jay Gould, the youngest son of multi-millionaire George J. Gould, on April 27, in St. Thomas's church, New York. When it first became known that young Mr. Gould was engaged to marry the beautiful daughter of Mrs. Herbert Vos it was said the ceremony would take place in June, but owing to the premature announcement of the betrothal, the plans have been changed and the earlier date selected.

ATTACKS NEW SENATORIAL MEASURE

Senator Curtis Says That It Should Not Be Adopted as Offered.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 13.—As "one of the senators from Kansas," senator Curtis today addressed the senate in opposition to the revised resolution, proposing to submit to the states a constitutional amendment for the election of senators by direct vote. All through his speech he hurled attacks at his colleague, senator Briarwood, for approving of the amended resolution. Senator Curtis said he was in favor of a constitutional amendment looking to the election of senators by direct vote, but he was not willing that it should be amended so congress could give up all rights to make or alter the regulations of a state for the election of United States senators.

This, he said, was what the amended resolution would provide. The amended resolution, if its substance were approved by the states, would result in the states disfranchising negro voters, if they so desired, without congress being able to raise a hand, he said. "If the resolution, as amended, is adopted," said the senator in conclusion, "and is amended as provided therein, then congress gives up all its rights to make or alter the regulations of a state for the election of United States senators and if elections are disfranchised, if outrages are perpetrated, if fraud is committed, or if corrupt practices are resorted to, congress remains helpless."

For the Love of Madge

A Clean Man

Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and new, clean, healthy tissues. The man who is clean in this way will look it and act it. He will work with energy and think clean, clear, healthy thoughts.

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood. Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

prevents these diseases. It makes a man's insides clean and healthy. It cleans the digestive organs, makes pure, clean blood, and clean, healthy flesh.

It restores tone to the nervous system, and cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. It contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs.

Constipation is the most unclean uncleanliness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never gripe. Easy to take as candy.
